Featured Saint of the Week

St. John of Kanty (1390-1473)

Feast Day: December 23

John Cantius was born in Kety, Poland. He was a very smart and well-educated man. His intellectual contributions spanned the fields of theology, philosophy, physics, and Holy Scripture. By age 28, John was teaching philosophy classes at the university, while preparing for the priesthood. He was quite popular with the students, because he cared and helped them not only in their studies, but spiritually, mentally, physically and financially. Once ordained, he continued teaching and ministering to the students. His work thrived.

During this time there were debates to support a growing movement to have the pope submit to the authority of Church councils (conciliarism). John was a staunch defender of the papacy. Some of his rivals submitted false charges against him on the issue. He was not even allowed to appear and testify in his own defense and was subsequently convicted, unjustly.

John was dismissed from the university in 1431, and was reassigned as an apprentice pastor to a church in Bohemia. This particular church was known as a “dumping ground for disgraced priests” and his assignment there was not welcomed. Despite being unfairly fired, John embraced this new venture. He totally poured himself into ministering to the people, and won them over. After serving for 8 years John was finally exonerated; his congregation did not want him to leave. He returned to Krakow, Poland where his position was reinstated.

During his lifetime he made a number of pilgrimages to various places, including Rome which he did 4 times; the round trip to Rome was 1800 miles. He died in Poland at the age of 83.

“Fight all false opinions, but let your weapons be patience, sweetness and love. Roughness is bad for your own soul and spoils the best cause.” -St. John of Kanty

Habitat for Humanity Needs Volunteers

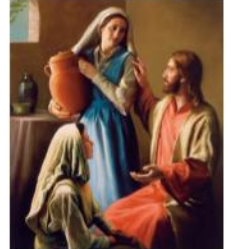

The 2025 Catholic Sponsored Habitat Build begins in January. St. Alphonsus and St. George will be teaming up to build on Saturday, Feb. 1 and Wednesday, Feb. 5. Please contact Glenn Jarreau at (225) 287-1295 if you would like to participate.

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes.

Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.

Thank You for Supporting our Advent Tree

We are deeply grateful for the generosity of our parishioners in making this year's Advent Tree Ministry a success. Your kindness has brought joy and hope to so many in our community. This year, we were blessed to extend our efforts in meaningful ways. Not only did we provide gifts to the residents of Central Guest House, but we also had the privilege of delivering the presents in person and spending time with the residents, sharing the spirit of the Christmas. They expressed deep gratitude and appreciation for this gesture. Additionally, for the first time, we included our homebound parishioners on the list of gift recipients. These visits brought them not only thoughtful gifts but also the joy of companionship and the reminder that they remain a treasured part of our parish family. Thank you to all of our parishioners for helping us live out Christ's love in such a beautiful and tangible way this Advent season. Photos submitted.
