Featured Saint of the Week

St. Vincent Marie Strambi (1/1/1745-1/1/1824)

Feast Day: 9/25

It was during his adolescence that Strambi decided he was being called to religious life; his parents supported his decision. During his ecclesial studies he sought admission (but was refused) in both the Order of Friars Minor Capuchin and the Vincentians.

Because of his oratorical gifts, he was sent to Rome to further his studies as a Dominican. Strambi continued his training and was ordained 12/19/1767. He then went on to his theological studies.

He made a retreat amid the Passionists of Monte Fogliano where their founder, (St.) Paul of the Cross was residing at the time. Admiring their ardent devotion, he asked Paul of the Cross to be admitted to the order. Strambi originally was thought to be too weak for the Passionist life. However, Paul relented, allowing Strambi to enter novitiate training with the Passionists and be ordained 9/24/1769. During his theological studies there was particular emphasis on the Church Fathers and on Sacred Scripture.

During his tenure, Strambi served as bishop of the two Italian cities, Macerata and Tolentino working tirelessly with zeal to reform both the clergy and the people serving as a true shepherd of his flock.

During political upheavals of the time, he was a fearless advocate for freedom of the Church, twice preferring an unjust and painful exile to the unlawful oath of allegiance in accord with the political manipulations of Napoleon.

In 1823, Strambi submitted his resignation to Pope Leo XII who reluctantly accepted it on the condition that Strambi move to Rome, to become his spiritual adviser and confessor.

By 1824, the Pope was on his deathbed; Strambi prayed that the Lord take him, allowing the Pope to live. The Pope miraculously recovered, but several weeks later, Strambi died of a stroke at age 79.
