Divine Mercy

The second week of our Divine Mercy Novena will be on February 18 - Ash Wednesday at 5 PM due to 6 PM Mass. Please note the time change. The remaining weeks will be at 6:00 PM. There will be no rosary. Jesus said to St. Faustina, "I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy. I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy."

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Joseph Mary Tomasi (9/12/1649-01/01/1713)

Feast Day: 1/1

Tomasi was born in 1649 into a famous wealthy family of nobility. His father was a prince, expecting his eldest son would succeed him in the Royal Court.

From a very early age, Joseph's life was oriented toward God. His schooling emphasized his Christian formation and moral training. He excelled in learning at least six foreign languages. Because of his linguistic abilities, he was able to convert one of his teachers, a rabbi, to Christianity.

Joseph's own spirit was directing him to be small in order to serve the King of Heaven, as opposed to serving kings on earth. His father did not agree, and would not give consent for him to pursue a religious life. Joseph then presented to his father, a notarized document renouncing any and all inheritance, including titles, property, and money in favor of his younger brother.

Joseph was admitted to the religious Order the Theatines, in 1665. The Order was initially founded as a reform movement in the Catholic Church, noted for its simplicity of life. He was ordained in 1673. His efforts at reform were directed toward restoration and maintenance of the old, as opposed to removing the old in favor of the new.

Pope Innocent XII made him examiner of both bishops and clergy. Joseph served as confessor to Pope Clement XI; he also taught catechism to children of the poor. He introduced the use of the Gregorian chant to the congregants. His contemporaries gave him titles such as the "Prince of the Roman Liturgists" and "Liturgical Doctor".

His scholarship was a significant source of reforms of the liturgy in the Catholic Church during the 20th century. (Think Vatican II)

St. Joseph Mary Tomasi died in 1713 from acute pneumonia at the age of 64.
