Answering the Bishop's Call to Change our Children's Formation

For years the Diocese required that we confirm young adults during their junior year of high school. In our parish, Confirmation preparation was a two-year process, which spanned the 10th and 11th grades. Bishop Duca recently formed a team that reexamined the Confirmation process across our Diocese. From this study, Bishop Duca directed that the age for Confirmation should be lowered to the 7th grade. The Bishop wants to challenge students at a younger age to take control of their own faith and to be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit. It is hoped that earlier Confirmation will empower our kids to become more active participants in their own faith life.

The catechetical team is excited about the opportunities that this change will bring to our religious education programs. We have been working hard to convert this mandated change into an opportunity to re-imagine our teaching and formation programs throughout the parish. We sincerely believe that our humble embrace of this assignment will allow us to develop more effective and Spirit-filled formation for our youth. Our new programs will focus on the development of relationship between our children and our Lord. We will certainly not abandon the Truth of the Church, and the programs will provide the information needed for a child to form her mind and conscious. However, we also want to impart a desire for the kids to remain in Christ and his Church after the classes end. We will do this through small group learning, increased service opportunities and additional family formation.

To answer the Bishop's call, we will need to transition our Confirmation formation from the 11th grade to the 7th grade. In fact, we are already starting this process. This year's sophomores have expedited their classes and will confirm this month. Next school year, formation and confirmation will occur for the next two classes below them. Each year thereafter, we will prepare and confirm two classes until we reach the 7th grade.

As you might expect, these changes will impact our PSR and other formation programs. We will describe these changes in future articles.

But for now, WE NEED YOUR HELP! In order to comply with the changes from the Bishop, but more importantly, to inspire a lasting faith in our children, we need dedicated adults to assist. Our faith formation programs are only as good as the volunteers who participate. Children will rightfully infer that formation is not important to them unless it is important to all of us. Please prayerfully consider lending back your God given talents to serve as teachers, mentors, administrators, or the various other roles required to impact our students. Pray that the use of our talents allows us to hear, "Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy." (Matthew 25:21)

Featured Saint of the Week

St. Gianna Beretta Molla (1922-1962)

Feast: April 28

Gianna was born the tenth of thirteen children; only eight survived to adulthood. Her family was devoutly Catholic and included several priests and religious.

Gianna began studying medicine with the goal of joining her brother, a missionary priest serving in Brazil. But because of health issues could not join him, so she began her pediatric practice in her home town.

In 1955 Gianna married engineer Pietro Molla. The couple welcomed each of their first three children without complication.

The fourth child was different. During the second month of this pregnancy, she developed a tumor in her uterus in addition to the baby. She was given three options: 1) abort, 2) have a complete hysterectomy, or 3) just have the tumor removed. Two of the situations would end her pregnancy and the third so-called choice was just as dangerous with the added possibility of fatal complications for her. Gianna was clear on what needed to be done; there was no option.

Ultimately the baby was delivered, and the tumor removed. About one week after giving birth to a healthy baby girl, Gianna died from septic peritonitis.

The child, named Gianna Emanuela, grew up to become a geriatric practitioner that was still practicing as of 2017. Gianna said her father always told her that her mother's choice was one of conscience as both a loving mother and doctor.

She is the patron saint of doctors, mothers, wives, families and unborn children.

Gianna Beretta Molla was canonized in 2004; it was the first time a husband was able to witness his wife's canonization.
