Featured Saint of the Week

St. Bernardine of Siena (1380-1444)

Feast: May 20

Bernardine was born to upper-class parents; however, his mother died when he was 3, and he lost his father at age 7. His pious aunt Diana took him in and taught him to seek consolation and security by trusting in God.

He focused on his studies developing the eloquence and dedication that would serve him well in his future work as an evangelist. An outgrowth of his love for God was his remarkable work with the poor on a daily basis. For five months, he also volunteered in the local hospital, working tirelessly treating those who'd become ill during the plague. He became ill, but it was due to exhaustion.

After his ordination in 1404, his superiors commissioned him to preach as a missionary to the Italians who were falling away from the Catholic faith. It was in about 1406 that he first heard evangelist St. Vincent Ferrer, foretelling that his mantle would descend onto one of his listeners. St. Bernardine took it to heart and picked up that mantle. He was so successful that he became known as "the Apostle of Italy" for his efforts to revive the country's Catholic faith during the 15th century. His writings were against: gambling, sorcery/witchcraft, and infanticide, among other things, helping to establish his wide-spread reputation.

He much preferred preaching to the more administrative, or arbitrator work. He had been offered a bishopric on three separate occasions, which he turned down each time. Bernardine was not universally popular though. Once when he was preaching in L'Aquila, someone had sawed the legs of the pulpit, causing him to fall into the crowd.

Bernardine's advice is: "In all your actions, seek in the first place the kingdom of God and his glory. Direct all you do purely to his honor. Persevere in brotherly charity and practice first all that you desire to teach others."

-St. Bernardine of Siena

OUTREACH

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes.

Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.
