Featured Saint of the Week

St. Benedict Joseph Labre (1748-1783)

Feast: April 16

Benedict was born in northern France, the eldest of 18 children in a well-to-do family. His uncle, a parish priest, provided his education. He was initially interested in pursuing monastic life. He ultimately was accepted as a postulant at the Cistercian Abbey, only to learn soon after that monastic life was not his vocation.

He experienced a God-given desire to leave everything behind, abandoning his parents and family, country, and all things worldly. He joined the Third Order of St. Francis, settling on a life of poverty and pilgrimage. He traveled throughout Europe, always on foot, sleeping in the open in his muddy, ragged clothes; subsisting on donations from begging. He lived off of and shared what he received; rarely speaking and praying often, despite the abuses he endured.

During his travels, he was able to visit many of the most famous shrines in Europe. He also spent hours in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. He was known to have periods of ecstasy during prayer; he cured some of the homeless and multiplied bread for them. He was a familiar figure in the city, known as “the saint of the 40 Hours” for his dedication to Eucharistic adoration.

Labre collapsed and was taken to a house behind a church, where he died. He died of malnutrition and exhaustion on April 16, Wednesday of Holy Week in 1783 at the age of 35.

He is the patron saint of the homeless.

“Saint Benedict Joseph Labre, you gave up honor, money, and home for love of Jesus. Help us to set our hearts on Jesus and not on the things of this world. You lived in obscurity among the poor in the streets. Enable us to see Jesus in our poor brothers and sisters and not judge by appearances.”

OUTREACH

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes.

Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.

Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

- Fr. Al Volpe, Cameron Parish, LA
