Featured Saint of the Week

St. Jozef Bilczewski
4/26/1860--3/20/1923
Feast: 3/20

From an early age, the Polish born Jozef Bilczewski had a deep interest in using his life to serve God. His youth and early adulthood were focused on his education, and making the best use of his talents. Once he received his two doctorate degrees, he served as a theological and dogmatic professor at Lviv College.

He had a well-deserved reputation as a learned and cultured man. So much so, that Emperor Franz Joseph I nominated him to become the head of the archdiocese in Lviv. Pope Leo XIII agreed, and at the age of 40, Jozef was named as the new archbishop.

As Archbishop, Bilczewski had a broad range of initiatives, mostly for revitalizing the faith within the people, and also moving forward in developing ecumenical cooperation with other denominations.

There was a host of other things the Archbishop foresaw: helping the poor, plus with the onslaught of WWI, organizing food and relief for those displaced and/or refugees. He stayed mostly behind the scenes trying to smooth tension in several areas of unrest. He initiated construction of many new churches in the archdiocese, encouraged devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, as well as urged priests to implement Eucharistic Adoration in their parishes. He organized courses for priests, enabling them to become more involved in social work for the poor. He financed several Catholic societies, and was quite popular with many students of all creeds. He also instituted the first Mariological Congress in Poland.

On March 20, 1923 he died due to an autoimmune disease, pernicious anemia. As requested, he was laid to rest in the cemetery of Janow, known as the cemetery of the poor. He was 62.

Happy Grandparents Day!

A story time, A nursery rhyme,
 The time you spend with me
 Fills me up with happiness,
 You're everything to me.

A heart so full of love and care,
 I thank the world that you are there
 To always be the one for me
 That fills my hearts with memories.

Grandparents, grandparents,
 They are the greatest people in the world.
 Near or far, wherever you are,
 always be my shining star.

A smiling face, A warm embrace,
 A hand to hold, when I am cold,
 Two arms that hold me oh so tight
 And wish good dreams to me at night.

Blessing of all
