Caring for the Common Good

By Fr. Mike Moroney

Over the past few weeks, I have seen and heard so many life-giving stories of people doing good in many ways for their brothers and sisters in Christ. The old saying is true: challenging times can bring out the best of people. It is by doing what we were called to do for the safety of others and being there for each other that we get a glimpse of hope, and even a sense that together we will see the end of this virus.

These times have been especially difficult for those who have family or friends in the hospitals and those who have lost loved ones, especially in the cases where families could not be there for their loved ones in their final moments. Having done many funerals, all grave-side situations, it has been extremely difficult for families with limited numbers allowed to attend.

During a time of crisis and uncertainty, we may find ourselves struggling with fear and anxiety. This is natural for us human beings, but as St. Paul reminds us in his letter to the Philippians: “to have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your request be made known to God” 4:6. St. Paul had many hardships in his life, and he invites us to trust that God will guide us through all of this.

Many have said to me, “Where is God in all of this.” I always believe that God is in the midst with us in all stages of life. Personally, I say good will come out of this, and it is already happening with people caring more, spending more time talking, being more kind, and being more charitable. For me, the greatest good will be if we can all come to a better appreciation and understanding of the beautiful gift of life with all its challenges and its blessings. Last week, I read many stories of health professions and all of those working so hard to save lives. Each day, they put themselves in great danger to save others. I read stories of sadness when they could not save a life, and I read of their great joy of some of the great successes they had. Then I read about the anger taking place because abortion clinics were closed. For a moment I felt so sad, having read of all that was being done to save lives, and on other hand, that there are people who want to take away an innocent life. I do not understand it and why our world can justify it.

I pray that together we will continue to do what is right, not just for ourselves but for the good of us all. I am confident that together we will get through this difficult time and we will have learned a bit more about the gift of life. May God bless, protect, and keep each of you.

Fr. Mike

MISSION STATEMENT

*We are a faith-filled community who,
through prayerful discernment,
call forth the gifts of the Spirit given to each individual,
that Christ may be known in our community
and in our world.*

Congratulations to all who participated in our Walk to Jerusalem this Lent

By Fr. Mike Moroney

It was a wonderful success. We made it there and back, and we were on our way back there again as Lent ended with 13,700.20 miles reported.

I hope you all enjoyed the process and that you benefited spiritually, physically, and health-wise from the experience.

Since many reported their miles as a family I do not know how many individuals took part.

Many thanks to our Liturgy Committee for coming up with the idea for our parish. Special thanks goes to the members who put it together: Chair Mary Bridges, Kyle Cutrer, Angie Giovingo, and Rebecca Kush. These and other members of the committee did a wonderful job.

Thanks to everyone who participated. Have a blessed Easter season.

Fr. Mike
