Adoration Chapel

Last week was the 25th anniversary of our Adoration Chapel. After each Mass this weekend, we will have parishioners available to answer any questions you may have regarding Adoration in our Chapel.

Twenty-five years ago, our Adoration Chapel was established as a place to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Today, with the shortage of priests in our Diocese and this country, these prayers are needed even more today. But, you are not limited to just pray for vocations in our Chapel. You can pray the Rosary, meditate, ask Jesus for help, read Scripture or other Catholic literature, or just silently talk and listen to Jesus.

Is Jesus calling you to commit one hour a week, to come out of your comfort zone, to come and visit Him? If so, visit our table in the Gather Space after Mass this weekend to find out more details. If you feel that you cannot make that one-hour time commitment, come visit us anyway. We want you to visit our Chapel, even if it is only for five or ten minutes whenever you can.

-Deacon George
