Featured Saint of the Week

St. Joseph Calasanz (1557-1648) Feast: 8/25

This well-educated Spanish born priest was originally ordained in 1583. He worked for the local bishop's office in the diocese of Albarracin, in his native parish. The bishop was transferred to a new diocese in Rome, Italy. Joseph followed the bishop to his new appointment, but within two years the bishop had died. Staying in Rome, Fr. Joseph found himself working with Cardinal Colonna.

The Cardinal chose Joseph as his theologian, plus asked him to take on the spiritual direction of the household. Rome offered many opportunities for works of charity, specifically for the instruction of neglected or homeless children; many of whom had lost their parents. Fr. Joseph joined the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and began gathering boys from the streets for schooling. Though he gathered far too many boys to be added and taught in the existing schools.

Fr. Joseph then proceeded to organize and systematize a method of educating school pupils through progressive cycles, a system of vocational training, and a system of secondary education. The official name of the new organization was the Order of Poor Clerics Regular of the Mother of God of the Pious Schools. The priests were more commonly called Piorists. This order was responsible for the first free schools in Europe, open to all classes of society without any type of discrimination. This project was probably quite difficult, in part because the Order was one that survived on donations alone. Yet, the students received a moral and Christian education with special emphasis on both math and science for pupils and teachers alike. The boys were also schooled in physical education and personal hygiene. Fr. Joseph was a staunch proponent of utilizing education to change society.

Because of his support of Galileo's life needs after the Inquisition, Pope Innocent X revoked the Order's privileges in 1646. Pope Alexander VIII restored the Order ten years later, but unfortunately, Fr. Joseph did not live to see it. Despite any road blocks he'd experienced, Fr. Joseph remained faithful to the Church until his death in 1648 at the age of 90. St. Joseph Calasanz was canonized by Pope Clement XIII on 7/16/1767.

The Order celebrated their 400th anniversary jubilee year in 2017.

Mission Speaker for Archdiocese of Tororo Uganda coming Feb. 22-23

The Archdiocese of Tororo, covering an approximate area of 8,500 square miles, serves an estimated population of 4 million people, about 1.6 million of whom are Catholic.

The Archdiocese of Tororo has the following pastoral entities: 47 parishes and 984 missions/sub-parishes (village churches with no resident priest).

In order to bring pastoral services nearer to the people, the Archdiocese plans within the next few years to raise five sub-parishes (missions) to parish status.

Homebound? Need Holy Communion?

Do you know someone who is unable to attend Mass due to illness, frailty or other problems and wants to receive Holy Communion at home? In this way, the sick and homebound are united to the Body of Christ present in our community. Contact Donna Lambert at the Church Office at 225-261-4650 to arrange these visits.

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks.

If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes.

Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.
