Mass Intentions for July-December 2025

Our Mass Intentions book for July through December 2025 will open on April 1. You may purchase up to three weekend and three weekday Mass Intentions at a time for a $5 donation each in the Church Office.

Genuflection

"By myself I swear uttering my just decree and my unalterable words: To me every knee shall bend..." states the Lord. (Isaiah 45:23)

We genuflect to God alone; genuflecting is a sign of reverence, adoration, humility, and obedience.

Genuflection involves bending the right knee to the ground, signifying adoration specifically for the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Upon entering and before leaving the church we genuflect to Jesus in the Tabernacle honoring him in the form of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Whether in the Tabernacle or in exposition (for adoration) we honor him on bended knee.

For those unable to genuflect, a reverent bow of the head or from the waist can be substituted. Whether we genuflect or bow before Jesus, it should be in profound reverence, neither hurried nor careless.

During the Easter Triduum on Good Friday in the absence of the Most Blessed Sacrament, we venerate the Holy Cross giving honor to the sacrifice Jesus made on the cross.

underground for years, and could now finally begin practicing it in public.

Today, Nagasaki has the largest Catholic population in Japan.

These first martyrs of Japan came to be especially revered. St. Paul Miki, along with his companions was canonized by Pope Pius IX 1862.
