Fr. Jason's Wishful Thinking: The Most Important Word That You Can Say at Mass

Dear Friends in Christ:

We have moved past our study of the Bread of Life Discourse (John's gospel, chapter six) for five weeks, but the Holy Spirit compels me to address a few things that I have noticed in the last two months at Mass. I would normally address these topics in a homily, but since we alternate the homily schedule at St. Alphonsus, I didn't have that ability in the two weeks that I was able to preach about the Bread of Life.

The first topic is our response when we come up to receive Holy Communion. The proper response is an audible "AMEN." Sometimes, people don't say anything at all. And when that happens, I am tempted to simply pull the host away from them until they say, "AMEN." The word Amen means several things: yes, I believe, so be it. When we leave the pew and move forward in the Communion line, we should be thinking about how God so loves us that He chooses to meet us in the most intimate way possible at the base of the altar. And if you are in the proper mindset, and in the state of grace to receive such an intimate gift, then your response at the words, "The Body of Christ" and/or "The Blood of Christ" such be an overwhelming "AMEN." When we don't even say that word, it says a lot about where our mind might be during Mass, or what we may not even believe to be true to begin with. Saying "Amen" at Communion is a public declaration of faith--it is our altar call each week in the Catholic church, along with professing the creed together as a group.

The second topic that I would like to address regards reception of Communion when you are holding a child. Reaching out with one hand to receive Communion and popping it into your mouth like it is popcorn or trail mix is not reverent, nor proper. There is also the high possibility that you might drop the Eucharist since you are not using both hands. If you are coming up to receive Communion and you are carrying a child, please receive Communion on the tongue. That way, we do not have to worry about the Eucharist falling to the floor. Dear friends, for 60 years, we have been taught overwhelmingly about receiving Communion in the hand, but in most countries of the world, this is not the norm. We [in America] love to pride ourselves on being different, progressive and "cutting edge" with many things; but in my humble opinion, Communion in the hand can be very irreverent and casual in our day and time, and we wonder why so many people don't believe that the Eucharist is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ! Well, the way that we receive Communion says a lot about what we believe, and those who witness what we do over time are influenced in their belief, too... Especially our children! If I were carrying a child, I would not want any possibility of dropping the child because I'd love that child and would not want to harm them. But what about the Eucharist? Would I really want to entertain the possibility of dropping the Eucharist, either? It is very simple to open your mouth and allow the Communion minister to put the host on your tongue.

If you come to me in the Communion line and you are carrying a child, please know that from this point forward, I will insist on putting the host on your tongue. The same principle will apply if you are walking with a cane, or you are wearing a cast on your hand, etc. It is safer for you and most reverent for Christ that you receive on the tongue if you are hindered from fully controlling the actions of both of your hands.

Finally, I want to address something that I have needed to do EVERY week since being at St. Alphonsus... And that is having to interrupt the Communion line to chase people down and confront them about consuming the host that I have given them. If you receive the Blessed Sacrament in your hand, take one small step to the side and place the host into your mouth immediately. DO NOT walk away with the Blessed Sacrament, or take five or six steps before you decide to place it in your mouth. You will look suspicious to me and I will stop and follow you, to make sure that you received the Blessed Sacrament. For those of you who feel so compelled to bring Communion to the back of church, this is not proper either... It is the responsibility of the trained and appointed Eucharistic ministers to bring Communion to those who cannot come forward.

Dear friends, we live in a day and a time when people come to a Catholic church and wish to smuggle the Eucharist away for satanic rituals and desecration, or people come up and they are unfamiliar with Communion and the beliefs of our church, and they simply receive the host and walk away with it. And when the church is being cleaned, we find hosts tucked away in the missal holders and in the pews. Frankly, many of us priests are getting tired of having to protect the Blessed Sacrament from these abuses.

I want everyone reading my article this week to sincerely ask yourself, "Am I receiving Communion reverently? Am I guilty of one or more of the things that Fr. Jason brings up?" If you are a parent or a grandparent, when was the last time that you had a family conversation about the proper way to receive Communion with your children? Let's all work together to make Communion a more reverent time during Mass.

As your priest, can I hear an "AMEN?"

Featured Saints of the Week

St. Joseph of Cupertino (1603-1663)

Feast Day: September 18

Joseph's early life was less than ideal. While he was being born in a shed behind their family home, the home was being foreclosed upon and their personal belongings were being sold by the authorities.

He was known as being a slow learner and rather absent-minded; his bad temper made him even less popular. His mother considered him a nuisance and treated him harshly.

At the age of 18, his mother arranged for him a job at the Conventual Franciscan monastery. He was given a friar's habit and put to work as a horse groomer. While having to be with the horses for long periods, Joseph began to change, growing in humility and gentleness. He began to excel at his work, praying more and doing more voluntary acts of penance.

He was finally allowed to enter the Franciscan order to study for the priesthood. He still had major problems with book learning, but with accommodation he passed the test. He was first ordained as a deacon, and then a priest. Joseph endured many severe trials and terrible temptations throughout his life, but his faith never wavered.

Now, the Holy Spirit began to work many amazing miracles through Joseph. His congregation reported him levitating while praying or even while offering Mass. He often went into ecstasy and would be totally focused while talking with God. He developed a deep-seeded love for both God and the Blessed Mother.

His levitations were seen by some as a form of witchcraft. He was called to appear before the Inquisition in Naples. He was examined by two different panels without any evidence for conviction. Joseph was then relegated to be confined and kept in seclusion. This lasted for 25 years. Still in seclusion, he died on September 18, 1663, at the age of 60.

Holy Land Gifts - Sept. 21-22

Holy Land Gifts will be visiting our Parish on Sept. 21-22 to sell their olive wood gifts to help relieve the dire Christian situation in the Holy Land. Olive wood carvings are made in home workshops by Catholic families in the city of Bethlehem who rely on their sales to pilgrims and tourists as their main source of income.

The recent war halted tourism to the Holy Land, all souvenir shops and Hotels are now closed resulting in 70% unemployment among the carvers. The Catholics of the Holy Land ask for the support of your prayers and the purchase of these handcrafted artworks. Proceeds from sales generate much-needed employment opportunities and monetary funds for 600 Catholic families in Bethlehem. Cards, cash and apple pay will be accepted. Please consider these Gifts for your family, friends, and yourself and be as generous as God is to you.

Martha's Meals of Mercy

Martha's Meals of Mercy will bring meals to parishioners that are just coming home from the hospital, have just had a new baby, or are going through a traumatic time. The meals will be delivered for a short time- 2-3 times a week for 2-3 weeks. If you or someone you know could benefit from this ministry OR if you would like to be a Martha and provide meals, please notify the parish office at 225-261-4650. A representative of the ministry will call back and get information such as the number of people in the family, food allergies, likes and dislikes. Those receiving the meals will be asked to place a cooler at their door where the food will be placed at a specific day and time. That way they will not be disturbed.

Unexpected benefits of Bible Study groups

1. Bible Study groups follow Jesus’ example. This is called the Discipleship model. Acts 2/42 tells us that first generation believers met in home and “devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to fellowship.”

2. Accountability, we all have good intentions to stick with Bible study plans at home, yet distractions provide one reason after another to postpone or stop. Group members help to encourage and motivate each other.

3. Sometimes life is difficult. We can begin to think no one cares or understands what we are going through. Group members are there to listen and offer friendship and prayer.

4. By growing in understanding and knowledge of God, we can grow in love for one another and serve the body of Christ which will grow community.

5. A Bible Study group can be a place to transform our families, workplace and community.

Bible Studies begin in September. Consider signing up for one. Studies, times and locations can be found on the Church website www.alphonsus.org.
