

Women of Faith Scripture Study

Bible Study, Woman Called by Name

Magnificat's Bible Study, Woman Called By Name, holds the Nihil Obstat from Dr. Nathan Eubanks and the Imprimatur from Archbishop Gregory Aymond of the ministry's home Archdiocese of New Orleans. It is a scripture study of women in the Bible including ten Old Testament and ten New Testament lessons.

Each lesson in the participant workbook includes scripture readings, reflection questions, and space for notes and prayer requests. With the facilitator set, each lesson has a 15-20 minute teaching video DVD that describes the historical context and significance of the scriptures as well as how they are applicable in our current day. The facilitator set also contains a music CD with 20 songs complementing each lesson as well as facilitator notes, DVD transcripts, and answers to the reflection questions.

The ten Old Testament lessons: Creation of Woman, Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel & Leah, Deborah & Jael, Hannah, Judith, Esther, Jezebel, The Worthy Wife. The ten New Testament lessons: Elizabeth, The Samaritan Woman, The Woman Caught in Adultery, Mary Magdalene, Martha & Mary, Mary of Bethany, Herodias & Her Daughter, Women Touched by Jesus, Salome: Mother of James & John, Mary: Mother of Jesus.
